MOTION FOR LEAVE TO FILE AND PERMIT THE CENTER FOR GARDEN STATE FAMILIES TO APPEAR AMICI CURIAE IN SUPPORT OF THE PLAINTIFFS

NOW COMES, the Center for Garden State Families, by and through Counsel, respectfully seeking leave to file Amicus Curiae. The attached brief supports the Plaintiffs' causes of action.

This is an amicus brief that is filed by ex-gays who testimonials prove that just as there is no such thing as a "rape gene," there is no such thing as a gay gene either. The amicus brief confirms that that “sexual orientation” has nothing to do with immutability but is a religious mythology that is inseparably linked to the religion of Secular Humanism, which makes (1) gay marriage policy, (2) government paid for sexchange operations, (3) conversion therapy bans, (4) Drag Queen Story Hour at the Children’s public library, (5) sexual orientation discrimination statutes, (6) government mandated pronoun change, (6) transgender bathroom ordinances, ect patently unconstitutional in their making and in their enforcement. While the Plaintiffs should prevail on their Establishment Clause claim because the government’s enforcement of pro-gay policies violates the First Amendment Establishment Clause for failing the prongs of the Lemon Test from every angle.¹ The Amicus should be granted leave to file because the brief explains

¹What Is The Lemon Test?

<https://soundcloud.com/user-450634204/what-is-the-lemon-test>

To pass muster under the Establishment Clause, a practice must satisfy the Lemon test, pursuant to which it must: (1) have a valid secular purpose; (2) not have the effect of advancing, endorsing, or inhibiting religion; and (3) not foster excessive entanglement with religion. Id. at 592 (citing Lemon v. Kurtzman, 403 U.S. 602 (1971)). It is important to understand that government action “violates the Establishment Clause if it fails to satisfy any of these prongs.” Edwards, 482 U.S. 578 at 583; Agostini v. Felton, 521 U.S. 203, 218 (1997). In view of the testimony of ex-gays, medical professionals, and ministers, gay marriage policy, sexual orientation discrimination statutes, transgender bathroom ordinances, and conversion therapy bans violate all three prongs of the Lemon test by a landslide in their making and in their enforcement. It is not a close call. There are millions of taxpayers who believe that all forms of parody marriage are immoral. They also believe that to enable acts of immorality is itself an act of immorality. It is coercive for the tax dollars of non-observers of Secular Humanism to be used to endorse parody marriages that do not involve one man and one woman because it makes them feel culpable of condoning immorality. When a person is legally married they are entitled to what is called a “constellation of benefits” that flows from the general fund. These taxpayers in this State have standing to enjoin the State from making or enforcing parody marriage policy, sexual orientation discrimination statutes, transgender bathroom ordinances, and conversion therapy bans because the policies themselves are (1) a non-secular shams that (2) have the effect of creating an indefensible legal weapon against non-observers of the religion of Secular Humanism, while (3) serving to excessively entangle the government with the religion of Secular Humanism. Policies that promote parody marriages do not accomplish their intended purposes and are based on a series of unproven faith-based assumptions and naked assertions that are implicitly religious and inseparable from the Secular Humanism.

how the Defendants enforcement of pro gay policies fails prong one of Lemon.² The Amicus should be allowed to file a belief because it provides evidence the challenged pro-gay policies

² How Does Gay Marriage Policy Fail Prong One Of The Lemon Test?

<https://soundcloud.com/user-450634204/how-does-gay-marriage-policy-fail-prong-one-of-the-lemon-test>

The State's enforcement of gay marriage policy and the State's enforcement or perspective enforcement of sexual orientation discrimination statutes, transgender bathroom ordinances, or conversion therapy bans violate prong one of Lemon because those policies are not "secular" and because they are the ultimate "sham" for purposes of the Establishment Clause, since they have an underlying primary religious objective. At the core of the "Establishment Clause is the requirement that a government justify in secular terms its purpose for engaging in activities which may appear to endorse the beliefs of a particular religion." ACLU v. Rabun Cnty. Chamber of Commerce, Inc., 698 F.2d 1098, 1111 (11th Cir. 1983). This secular purpose must be the "pre-eminent" and "primary" force driving the government's action, and "has to be genuine, not a sham, and not merely secondary to a religious objective." McCreary Cnty, Ky. v. ACLU of Ky., 545 U.S. 844 (2005). There are at least seven reasons why legally recognized gay marriage violates prong one of Lemon provided in motions for summary judgment and amicus briefs posted under the tab called "Law for Attorney Generals." First, in the wake of Obergefell there has not been a land rush on gay marriage. The raw numbers tell the tale. Prior to the Obergefell decision two years ago, the 7.9 percent of gays who were married would have amounted to 154,000 married gay couples. Two years later, this had grown to 10.2 percent or 198,000 married couples. Second, gay marriage policies are a total sham because while there has not been a land rush on gay marriage, there has been a land rush on Christian persecution. Third, while there has not been a land rush on gay marriage, there has been a land rush by Secular Humanists to infiltrate elementary schools with the purpose of indoctrinating minors to the Secular Humanism ideology on sex, faith, morality, marriage, and truth. Fourth, the fact that majority in Obergefell pretended that gay rights were civil rights like race-based civil rights are, when race-based civil rights are actually based on immutability, shows that gay marriage policy and all other pro-gay policies are sham. Fifth, the fact that in the wake of Obergefell self-identified homosexuals continue to protest ex-gay conventions because the testimony of ex-gays causes the legal basis behind the fake gay civil rights plight to implode shows that the government's endorsement of LGBTQ ideology is a sham. Sixth, the fact that parody marriages have never been a part of American history and tradition and that gay marriage was basically illegal until Lawrence v. Texas, 539 U.S. 558 (2003) recently overturned Bowers v. Hardwick, 478 U.S. 186 (1986), and yet the Court pretended otherwise by monkeying with the Fourteenth amendment's Substantive Due Process Clause shows that gay marriage policy is a sham. The purpose of the government's decision to entangle itself with the LGBTQ church was to promote tolerance and equality for a pretend people group, and because the "stated purpose [of the government's entanglement with the LGBTQ church has] not [been] actually furthered...then that purpose [must be] disregarded as being insincere or a sham." Church of Scientology v. City of Clearwater, 2 F.3d 1514, 1527 (11th Cir. 1993).

the respect homosexual orthodoxy fails prong II of Lemon for creating an indefensible legal weapon against all non-observers of the religion of Secular Humanism.³ The amicus should be granted leave because the brief provides arguments for how the enforcement of gay marriage policy and all other related policies crafted to pay respect to homosexual orthodoxy violate prong III of Lemon for excessively entangling the government of Secular Humanism.⁴ The Court “can

³ How Does Gay Marriage Policy And Related Pro-Gay Policies Fail Prong Two Of The Lemon Test

<https://soundcloud.com/user-450634204/how-does-gay-marriage-policy-fail-prong-two-of-the-lemon-test>

Under this second prong of the Lemon test, courts ask, “irrespective of the . . . stated purpose, whether [the state action] . . . has the primary effect of conveying a message that the [government] is advancing or inhibiting religion.” Indiana Civil Liberties Union v. O’Bannon, 259 F.3d 766, 771 (7th Cir. 2001). The “effect prong asks whether, irrespective of government’s actual purpose,” Wallace v. Jaffree, 472 U.S. 38, 56 n.42 (1985), the “symbolic union of church and state...is sufficiently likely to be perceived by adherents of the controlling denominations as an endorsement, and by the nonadherents as a disapproval, of their individual religious choices.” School Dist. v. Ball, 473 U.S. 373, 390 (1985); see also Larkin v. Grendel’s Den, 459 U.S. 116, 126-27 (1982)(even the “mere appearance” of religious endorsement is prohibited).

In the wake of the Obergefell and Windsor putsch, there has not been a land rush on gay marriage, but there has been a land rush by Secular Humanists to persecute Christians for refusing to endorse a religious worldview that non-observers of Secular Humanism believe is self-evidently immoral, obscene, and subversive to human flourishing. While “gay marriage” is “fake marriage,” the government’s endorsement of homosexual orthodoxy has lead to the “very real” persecution of Christians. The unconstitutional codification of the fake gay civil rights movement amount to an indefensible “legal weapon that no [Christian or non-observer of Secular Humanism] can obtain.” City of Boerne v. Flores, 521 U.S. 507 (1997). A “gay marriage license” issued by the state amounts to a government issued “license to oppress.” That is the effect of the government’s unconstitutional entanglement with the religion of Secular Humanism. It is an evil that the Establishment Clause does not allow. The CADA statute that Jack Phillips was sued under violated the Establishment Clause in its making (it took state action to create it) and in its enforcement for failing prong two of Lemon. Alliance Defending Freedom refused to make that argument because they are more interested in defending donations and persecution is good for their business model.

excessive entangles the government with the religion of Secular Humanism because it enshrines one narrow and exclusive version postmodern western individualistic moral relativism, i.e. Secular Humanism, as the irrefutable supreme national religion. In re Young, 141 F.3d 854 (8th Cir 1998); Westchester Day School v. Village of Mamaroneck, 504 F.3d 338, 349 (2d Cir. 2007). In the wake of the Obergefell v. Hodges, 135 S.Ct. 2584 (2015) and United States v. Windsor, 133 S. Ct. 2675, 186 L. Ed. 2d 808 (2013) judicial putsch, there has not been a land rush on gay marriage, but there has been a land rush by Secular Humanists to infiltrate elementary schools with the purpose of indoctrinating minors to a worldview on marriage, morality, and sex that is questionably real, moral, decent, and non-secular. The Supreme Court has emphasized that there are “heightened concerns with protecting freedom of conscience from subtle coercive pressure in the elementary and secondary public schools,” Lee v. Weisman, 505 U.S. 577, 592 (1992). The Federal courts have thus “been particularly vigilant in monitoring compliance with the Establishment Clause” in the public-school context, see Edwards v. Aguillard, 482 U.S. 578, 583 (1987). The legislature has a duty under Article VI to be vigilant as well to keep Secular Humanists from indoctrinating minors to Secular Humanist’s religious worldview. The government’s endorsement of gay marriage policy has had the effect of entitling Secular Humanists to impose their religious beliefs on minors in public schools in a manner that demonstrates that gay marriage policy and sexual orientation statutes are religious shams that violate the Establishment Clause. Because tax dollars are flowing from the general fund to finance the distribution of a constellation of benefits to self-identified homosexuals who legally marry and because there are hundreds of thousands of taxpayers in every state who do not want to play a role in enabling parody marriages, the enforcement of gay marriage policy fails prong three of the Lemon Test for excessively entangling the government with the religion of Secular Humanism and therefore violates the First Amendment Establishment Clause.

What Is Religion Really?

<https://soundcloud.com/user-450634204/what-is-religion-really>

All “religion” amounts to is a set of answers to the greater questions, like “why are we here” and “what should humans be doing.” “Religion” is, therefore, a set of unproven truth claims and naked assertions that can only be taken on faith. The Establishment Clause was never designed to single out “institutionalized religions,” like Christianity and Judaism, which tends to parallel transcultural self-evident truth that serves as the master narrative of the Constitution itself. The Establishment Clause also was designed - if not more so - to prohibit the government from legally codifying the truth claims floated by “non-institutionalized religions” as well, to include the truth claims asserted by the religion of postmodern western moral relativism and expressive individualism. Currently, “secularism” is having a full blown crisis because “secularism” is a “religion” in most respects that only pretends to be neutral.

introduce an act to be entitled the Marriage And Constitution Restoration Act, Life Appropriation Act, and a concurrent resolution that resolves that Secular Humanism, i.e. postmodern western individualistic moral relativism, is a religion for purposes of the First Amendment Establishment Clause in a manner that will forever cause the government to drop kick all pro-gay policies for constituting the greatest non-secular sham since the inception of American jurisprudence.⁵ In the scheme of things, these proceedings are just a formality. The governments entanglement with the LGBTQ church is a ticking time bomb.

The fact of the matter is that continued attempts to arbitrarily limit marriage to two people in an effort to sneak around the Establishment Clause will no longer fly. Attempts to arbitrarily limit marriage to two people has always been a ploy that is without merit and is just an excuse for Democrats to entangle the government with the ideology floated by the largest denomination within the church of Secular Humanism.⁶ With Justice Kennedy stepping down in

Does the Marriage And Constitution Restoration Act single out gay marriage?

<https://soundcloud.com/user-450634204/does-the-marriage-and-constitution-restoration-act-single-out-gay-marriage>

There are some bills that single out the LGBTQ community or gay marriage. But this is not one of them. This act does not single out self-identified homosexuals or gay marriage. This act bars the State from endorsing, recognizing, respecting, or favoring any form of marriage that does not involve one man and one woman. This act acknowledges that all citizens can have wedding ceremonies of all kinds and live as married people do. It is simply the case that the government is prohibited from being in the parody marriage business.

⁶ Why Can't The States Limit Marriage To Two Consenting People?

<https://soundcloud.com/user-450634204/why-cant-the-state-limit-marriage-to-two-consenting-people>

The Establishment Clause of the First Amendment of the United States Constitution prohibits all of the States from limiting marriage to two consenting adults. It is an arbitrary law state consideration that is undone by the holding in Obergefell and the Fourteenth Amendment if Obergefell was not a sham. Since the Supreme Court pretended that marriage is an "existing right," "individual right," and "fundamental right" based on a "personal choice" for self-identified homosexuals under the Fourteenth Amendment, then it follows that marriage must the wake of the 7 to 2 decision in Masterpiece Cakeshop v. the Colorado Civil Rights Commission, 584 U. S. ____ (2018), it is game over when it comes to the continuation of what the Honorable Justice Scalia correctly called an “egotistic....putsch” that constitutes a “threat to American Democracy.”⁷ To say that there is blood in the water is an understatement. The United be an “existing right,” “individual right,” and “fundamental right” based on a personal choice for self-identified polygamists, zoophiles, and objectophiles as well under the Fourteenth Amendment. Zablocki v. Redhail, 434 U.S. 374, 384 (1978) (fundamental right); Cleveland Bd. of Educ. v. LaFleur, 414 U.S. 632, 639 (1974) (personal choice); Loving v. Virginia, 388 U.S. 1, 12 (1967) (existing right/individual right); Lawrence v. Texas, 539 U.S. 558 (2003) (intimate choice). Otherwise, gay marriage plight is just a sham that is really barred by the Establishment Clause. The bottom line is that the Secular Humanists on the court are guilty of monkeying with the Fourteenth Amendment in a manner that makes Secular Humanists judges an internalized threat to American Democracy. The attempt by the blue states to limit marriage to two people is merely another arbitrary marriage ban that violates the Fourteenth Amendment, if the Obergefell decision was valid. But it was not. The First Amendment has exclusive jurisdiction in informing the states how to respond to all marriage requests that do not involve one man and one woman and how to respond to self-asserted sex-based identity narratives that are questionably real, moral, and decent.

⁷ What Was The Real Implication Of The Masterpiece Cakeshop Decision?

<https://soundcloud.com/user-450634204/what-was-the-real-implication-of-the-masterpiece-cake-s-hop-decision>

The 7 to 2 decision in Masterpiece Cakeshop v. the Colorado Civil Rights Commission, 584 U. S. ____ (2018) shows that the decisions in Obergefell and Windsor were a political ploy and an unprincipled misapplication of the Fourteenth and Fifth Amendments. There is no such thing as “partial civil rights movements.” If the “gay civil rights movement” was an actual a “civil rights movement,” then Jack Phillips should have been required to defy his religious beliefs and bake the cake for the self-identified homosexual couple. Secular Humanists on the Supreme Court have been behaving like children who have been caught in a lie because they have been exposed for having monkeyed with the Fourteenth Amendment by misapplying it to create law that entangles the government with Secular Humanism. Imagine if after the race-based civil rights movement of the 1960s, blacks could still be barred from military service or they still could be required to ride on the back of the bus. Discrimination on the basis for color is an evil that cuts across aspects of society because unlike sexual orientation it really is based on immutability and genetics. The gay civil rights movement is about Secular Humanists entangling the government with their private code to ratify a moral superiority complex that is dangerous, desensitizing, depersonalizing, dehumanizing, and destructive and most importantly non-secular. The fake gay civil rights movement is an effort by devout moral relativists to use government to explain away the natural feelings of shame and inadequacy that come from engaging in forms of sex that violate the givenness of our nature and the truth about the way things are and the way we are. Instead of trying to make all sides happy, the Federal Court judges should have just done their job by enforcing the Constitution as it was written and not as how devout Secular Humanists wished that it was.

States Supreme Court has already recognized that Secular Humanism is a religion.⁸ The

⁸ What Is The Religion Of Secular Humanism?

<https://soundcloud.com/user-450634204/what-is-the-religion-of-secular-humanism>

Ex-gays, medical professionals, and licensed ministers have provided testimony under oath in support of this bill that sexual orientation has nothing to do with immutability or the Fourteenth Amendment, but rather, sexual orientation is a religious orthodoxy that is inseparably linked to the religion of Secular Humanism. The United States Supreme Court (and most of the Federal Courts of appeals) have held that Secular Humanism is religion for purposes of the Establishment Clause. See the Supreme Court decisions in Torcaso v. Watkins, 367 U.S. 488 (1961) and Edwards v. Aguillard, 482 U.S. 578, 583 (1987). (“Among religions in this country, which do not teach what would generally be considered a belief in the existence of God, are Buddhism, Taoism, Ethical Culture, Secular Humanism, and others.” See Also Washington Ethical Society v. District of Columbia, 101 U.S. App. D.C. 371, 249 F. 2d 127 (1957); 2 Encyclopaedia of the Social Sciences, 293; J.Archer, Faiths MenLive By 120—138, 254—313 (2d ed. revised by Purinton 1958); Stokes & Pfeffer, supra, n.3 ,at 560. Welsh v. U.S., 1970398 U.S. 333 (U.S. Cal. June 15);; Wells v. City and Cnty. of Denver, 257 F.3d 1132 (2001)). There is hardly anything “secular” about the religion of “Secular Humanism.” The first amendment was never just designed to single out institutionalized religions to keep the government from respecting its doctrine. The Establishment Clause was designed, if not more so, to prevent moral relativists from using government to enshrine their Secular Humanist dogma. In Real Alternatives, the Seventh Circuit Court of Appeals stated: “we detect a difference in the “philosophical views” espoused by [the litigants], and the “secular moral system[s]...equivalent to religion except for non-belief in God” that Judge Easterbrook describes in Center for Inquiry, 758 F.3d at 873. There, the Seventh Circuit references organized groups of people who subscribe to belief systems such as Atheism, Shintoism, Janism, Buddhism, and secular humanism, all of which “are situated similarly to religions in everything except belief in a deity.” Id. at 872. “These systems are organized, full, and provide a comprehensive code by which individuals may guide their daily activities.” Instead having across or the ten commandments, the LGBTQ church has the gay pride flag and their own commandments, such as if you disagree with LGBTQ ideology you are a bigot worth marginalizing. The unproven naked truth claims evangelized by the LGBTQ church such as (1) there is a gay gene, that (2) people can be born in the wrong body, that (3) same-sex sexual activity checks out with the human design, that (4) same-sex buggery is not immoral, and that (5) people come out of the closet are baptized gay consists of a series of unproven faith based assumptions that are implicitly religious and take a huge amount of faith to believe are even plausible. Here is a video on Secular Humanism is a religion.

What Is The Problem With The ACLU And The Freedom From Religion Foundation?

<https://soundcloud.com/user-450634204/what-is-the-problem-with-the-acu-and-the-freedom-from-religion-foundation>

The ACLU and Freedom From Religion Foundation are constantly pushing to entangle the government with the religion of Secular Humanism that they ardently subscribe to. Both of these legislatures are recognizing it as well through legislative instruments authored by the Special Forces Of Liberty created directly out of a series of federal actions, which has involved a litany of Federal Judges appointed by President Obama who managed to lard the record with a treasure trove of intellectual dishonesty in direct violation of their duties owed to the Constitution under Article VI and Article III.

Leave should be granted because this brief seeks to protect ex-gays and non-observers of the religion of Secular Humanism from persecution. (see the declaration of Robin Goodspeed and Quinlan). Leave should be granted because the amicus is defending the integrity of the race-based civil rights movement lead by Pastor Martin Luther King Jr, which the political and Constitutional malpractice of the Defendants threatens.⁹ Leave should be granted because when organizations are too intellectually blind and dishonest to see or admit that they have been working for decades to entangle the government with their religion - establishing Secular Humanism as the national supreme religion. The problem for the ACLU and the Freedom From Religion Foundation is that the Supreme Court and just about every Circuit Court has held that Atheism is a religion. Wells v. City and Cnty. of Denver, 257 F.3d 1132 (2001). The reason why in Van Orden v. Perry, 545 U.S. 677 (2005), Justice Breyer in his concurrence stated that "the Establishment Clause does not compel the government to purge from the public sphere all that in any way partakes of the religious" because "[s]uch absolutism is not only inconsistent with our national traditions, but would also tend to promote the kind of social conflict the Establishment Clause seeks to avoid" was because western postmodern moral relativism is a religion whose faith-based dogmatic unproven truth claims cannot be respected through government recognition.

⁹ Anyone who compares the "gay civil rights plight" to the "race-based civil rights plight," whereas the race-based civil rights plight was actually based on immutability, only to not really mean it, has engaged in acts of fraud and racial animus in-kind that manages to be emotionally, intellectually, sexually, and racially exploitative. To oppose the government's unconstitutional endorsement of homosexual ideology is to defend the civil rights movement lead by Pastor Martin Luther King Jr. To embrace the fake gay rights movement is deeply offensive to people of color who were required at one point to walk to school, drink from the colored water fountain, and undergo mistreatment for characteristics that are without question based on genetics and immutability, not emotional faith-based beliefs. If a government official supports the government's endorsement of gay rights, they are refusing to think logically and can be accused of bigotry in-kind. Legislators support this act support the rule of law and the supremacy of the United States Constitution. Those who oppose this act that balances the Free Exercise Clause

the Defendants suggest "love is love," it does not mean what the public thinks.¹⁰ This brief ties in with the briefs filed by the National Alliance of Black Pastors, the Coalition of Doctors Defending Reparative Therapy, and American Family Association of PA, all of which make different points of law and point to different undisputed facts that will help the Court find the law, as Article III rights. It is important that this brief be in the record because it is the position of Amicus that for any government official to falsely equate the gay plight to the race based civil rights movement lead by Pastor Martin Luther King is an act of dishonest bigotry that amounts to racism in-kind in a manner that manages to be sexually, intellectually, emotionally, and racially exploitative. It is true that black lives matter and that all lives matter, and it matters that the race-based civil rights movement not be exploited by people who are really just advocates for perversion and the erosion of community standards of decency, while refusing to think logically. While there is no such thing as an "ex-black person," there are thousands of ex-gays and this brief prove that in a way that the Defendants cannot deny no matter how much intellectual squinting it attempts.¹¹ Amicus has a vested interest in defending the integrity of the race-based with the Establishment Clause are on the wrong side of history and reality. While there are thousands of ex-gays, there is no such thing as an "ex-black person." Help us safeguard and restore the integrity of the civil rights movement lead by Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. by standing behind the Marriage And Constitution Restoration Act.

¹⁰ What Does Love Is Love Really Mean?

<https://soundcloud.com/user-450634204/what-does-love-is-love-really-mean>

When people say that "love is love" what they really mean is that they are perfectly ok with government assets being used to crush anyone who believes that homosexuality is immoral or subversive to human flourishing. Such a position is categorically "unloving." It is more accurate to say that "love without truth is shallow sentimentality." One thing that the fake gay civil rights movement has managed to prove is that people who are "intolerant" of "intolerant people" are "intolerant;" people who are "judgmental" against "judgmental people" are "judgmental;" people who are "dogmatic" about not being "dogmatic" are themselves "dogmatic." As Justice Kennedy stated in Masterpiece Cakeshop, "tolerance has to cut both ways."

¹¹ Do gay people exist or do only self-identified gay people exist?

<https://soundcloud.com/user-450634204/do-gay-people-exist>

civil rights movement and in defending ex-gays who have converted to a new identity narrative from being socially marginalized and violently oppressed by intolerant brainwashed Secular Humanists, who pride themselves on not even believing that an objective right and wrong exists.

There is no such thing as "homosexuals." There are only some people who "self-identify" as "homosexual" for at least some period of time. While people have the right under the Free Exercise clause to form self-asserted sex-based identity narratives, the Establishment Clause prohibits the government from respecting and recognizing identity narratives that are questionably real, moral, and decent. Sex-based identity narratives are semi-religious in nature. While there are no such thing as "ex-blacks," there are thousands of ex-gays. The First Amendment in balancing the Free Exercise Clause and the Establishment Clause has exclusive jurisdiction in resolving the question as to which marriages the States can recognize and how the States must respond to self-asserted sex-based identity narratives that are questionably real, moral, and have a tendency to erode community standards of decency. It is intellectually, racially, sexually, and emotionally dishonest for Secular Humanists advocate the unprincipled ploy that the Fourteenth Amendment has anything to do with answering how the States must legally define marriage.

¹² Pastor Charlene Cothran is the director of the National Alliance of Black Pastors And Persecuted Christians. Her sworn statement is in the record and sets forth her interest in detail. Pastor Cothran is an African American Pastor who operated as a Militant self-identified Lesbian activist for over 28 years before converting to Christianity and leaving the lifestyle behind completely. Pastor Cothran was radically transformed by the personalized truth found in the New Testament Gospel. She went from persecuting Christians, as a devout self-identified lesbian to becoming one, leaving homosexuality behind. This brief draws from research conducted by the National Coalition of Black Pastors and Christian Leaders, which represent the interests of over 25,000 Churches and Ministries that include over 3 million laity. The National Coalition of Black Pastors and Christian Leaders lead their pastoral communities, preach, spread the good news of God's love, and promote the truth. As pastors, Amici are considered shepherds who guide their church communities in accordance with time-proven Biblical values and truth. For Amici, the Bible expresses sound, ethically-grounded doctrine upon which individuals beneficially rely regarding family matters. Amici carry the responsibility to oppose unsound morally-relative doctrines embraced by government actors and to oppose practices that are harmful to the following of God's time-proven teachings that accord with the self-evident transcultural universal law that is woven into the fabric of the Universe. Amici hold an interest in the government not entangling itself with the religion of Secular Humanism postmodern moral relativism and expressive individualism. Amici are taxpayers themselves who have standing to file their own separate lawsuit under the Establishment Clause enjoining the State from legally endorsing, respecting, and recognizing gay marriage. The Amici were in-part inspired to author this brief after seeing the LGBTQ community gang up on and persecute African American Comparing the dilemmas of same-sex couples to the centuries of discrimination faced by Black Americans is a deceptive distortion of our country's culture and history. The disgraces in our nation's history pertaining to the civil rights of Black Americans are unmatched. No other class of individuals, including individuals who self-identified as same-sex, objectophilic, or polygamously attracted, have ever been enslaved, or lawfully viewed not as human, but as property.¹³ Self-identified homosexuals, polygamists, transgenders, zoophiles and objectofile have never lawfully been forced to attend different schools, walk on separate public sidewalks, sit at the back of the bus, drink out of separate drinking fountains, denied their right to assemble, or denied their voting rights. Id. The legal history of these disparate classifications, i.e., immutable racial discrimination and same-sex attraction, is incongruent. Yet, some devout Moral Relativists in office have mistakenly understated this incongruence to manufacture and mandate the ill-conceived and apparently limitless concept of "marriage equality." It is an evil that the Establishment Clause of the United States Constitution will not allow the government to respect.

This brief, in-part, focuses on how Obergefell v. Hodges, 135 S.Ct. 2584 (2015) was a sham because the Supreme Court lacked subject matter jurisdiction to impose gay marriage just as the Defendants cannot sanction Drag Queen Story Hour, the distribution of a "constellation of benefits" to self-identified homosexuals who marry. This brief makes the case that the Fourteenth and Fifth Amendment Due Process and Equal Protection Clauses have nothing to do with how the states are permitted to define marriage and react to self-asserted sex-based identity narratives.

that are questionably real, moral, decent, and have the tendency to erode community standards of decency.. It follows that if gay marriage policy is unconstitutional and unenforceable under the Establishment Clause, then so are government paid for sex change operations and the government's enforcement of sexual orientation discrimination statutes on the same Constitutional prescription. A State has no responsibility to promote any person's sexual proclivities that is questionably more, like homosexuality and pedophilia are—and the government certainly is not required to accept that one's sexual conduct preference is the same as an immutable characteristic like race. The United States Supreme Court in Obergefell should have upheld the State's marriage bans because the underlying legal basis for the marriage bans was the First Amendment Establishment Clause. The First Amendment Establishment Clause is the kryptonite to the government's entanglement with LGBTQ ethos. Plus the States have a compelling interest to uphold community standards of decency as the marriage bans and as the Plaintiffs have been attempting to do by taking on the entire tech enterprise (see humantraffickingpreventionact.com).¹⁴ If the Governor was not a brainwash Secular Humanist, ¹⁴ What Was The Real Purpose Behind The Original Gay Marriage Bans?

<https://soundcloud.com/user-450634204/what-was-the-real-purpose-behind-the-original-gay-marriage-bans>

The original legal basis behind State's bans on parody marriages rested on the notion that parody marriages erode community standards of decency. The State's Constitution and the Supreme Court of the United States has made it clear that the States have a compelling interest to uphold community standards of decency. Paris Adult Theatre I v. Slaton, 413 US 49 (1973). Courts have held that "any school boy knows that a homosexual act is immoral, indecent, lewd, and obscene. Adult persons are even more conscious that this is true." Schlegel v. United States, 416 F. 2d 1372, 1378 (Ct. Cl. 1969). The Supreme Court has long since held that "to simply adjust the definition of obscenity to social realities has always failed to be persuasive before the Courts of the United States." Ginsberg v. New York, 390 U.S. 629, 639–40, 88 S.Ct. 1274, 20 L.Ed.2d 195 (1968), Mishkin v. State of New York, 383 U.S. 502, 509, 86 S. Ct. 958, 16 L. Ed. 2d 56 (1966), and Bookcase, Inc. v. Broderick, 18 N.Y.2d 71, 271 N.Y.S.2d 947, 951, 218 N.E.2d 668, 671 (1966). Community standards do not evolve but groups of people can become desensitized to objective immorality. While that is a state law argument, what is without question is that all he would know that all forms of parody marriage erode community standards of decency and affront the obscenity codes which he is charged to enforce. The fact that the Defendants do not know that homosexual and transgenderism are obscene, immoral, and non-secular demonstrates that they lack the character fitness to be in office and are a danger to the public's safety, health, and welfare. The amicus believes that the Plaintiffs are fulfilling a narrowly tailored compelling state interest by moving to stop the asinine idea of allowing the Children's library to organize, endorse, and promote the transvestite story hour for children at the Lafayette public library. Anyone with a semblance of common sense can see that. But the hallmark of some of the Defendants, especially the Governor and the Librarian, is that they are intellectually blind because they have unwisely elected to become brainwashed through a subscription to the unexamined assumption of the superiority of our cultural moment. By allowing the amicus to file it might illuminate the truth and help the blind see so that human flourishing can be advanced in a meaningful way in the formation of a more perfect union. Here is the truth - there is no such thing as "gay people." There are only some people who self-identify as gay for some period of time. Thousands of those people realize that they have been duped by the dishonest LGBTQ church, having only conformed to society's messages only to discover a great truth allows them to be set free from the lies floated by the LGBTQ community that the Defendants promote for self-serving reasons that bucks common sense.

"Although there is no formal rule governing the filing of amicus curiae briefs, district courts possess the inherent authority to grant or refuse leave to amicus parties." Georgia Aquarium, Inc. v. Pritzker, 135 F.Supp.3d 1280 (N.D.Ga.2015). "A district court exercises wide parody marriage policies and sexual orientation discrimination states fail all three prongs of the Lemon test and violate the Establishment Clause in their making and in their enforcement.

discretion in deciding whether to grant or deny leave to file an amicus brief.” United States v. Board of County Commissioners of the County of Otero, 184 F.Supp.3d 1097 (D.N.M. 2015). Amicus should be granted leave because this case has the potential to strike down all sexual orientation statutes, all gay marriage policies, all transgender bathroom policies, all government paid for sex change operations, all Drag Queen Story Hours held at the children’s library in this state and in all others because that is exactly what the United States First Amendment Establishment Clause requires based on arguments that the amicus and the Special Forces Of Liberty have been making before a litany of legislative bodies. (See Tim Keller sermon on “Absolutism” <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=nO9duGCUDrI>) While self-identified homosexuals force homosexual orthodoxy on the whole of America, it will be the testimony of ex-gays, like those who partner with Garden State Family, who were radically transformed by the personalized truth of the central figure of the New Testament gospel narrative who will completely end the governments entanglement with LGBTQ ideology - which is a worldview that is as equally subversive to human flourishing as ISIS’s call for jihad against infidels of Alah. Furthermore, leave should be granted because the amicus is providing the Constitutional basis for Obergefell to be overruled and relegated to the same trash pile that Dred Scott and Plessey have been sent to. Obergefell and the enforcement of pro-gay policies complained of are based on exclusively on emotion - nothing more. Emotional appeals do not allow government actors to usurp the Establishment Clause.¹⁵ Perhaps this brief, which seeks to safeguard the integrity of the race-based civil rights plight lead by Pastor Martin Luther King might help the Defendants awaken to transcultural reality about the way things are and the way we are.

Leave should be granted because “Stare Decisis” does not keep Obergefell v. Hodges, 135 S.Ct. 2584 (2015) from being overruled for the reasons that the amicus and the Special Forces Of Liberty have been asserting at legislative hearings on the Marriage And Constitution Restoration Act and in the Courts’ records all across the United States. While the Judiciary has been attempting to circle the wagons to defend an unprincipled ploy for reasons that are

Emotional appeals do not allow the government to usurp the Establishment Clause. When President Obama came into office, he emphasized that he wanted to appoint Judges to the Court who would demonstrate empathy. The entire basis for the Supreme Court in Obergefell to force the government to respect gay marriage policy was predicated on a series of emotional appeals and naked assertions that were implicitly religious in nature. Justices, like Ginsburg and Sotomayor, were moved by the the stories of self-identified homosexuals who were dropped off in the middle of nowhere by taxi cab drivers, denied medical treatment, and assaulted, simply because they identified as homosexual. While those stories are tragic, they do not justify the Supreme Court’s decision to misuse the Fourteenth Amendment in a manner in which it was never designed. There are other forms of relief already in place for victims who were wronged by taxi drivers, hospitals, and assailants. In Holloman v. Harland, 370 F.3d 1252 (11th Cir. 2004), an elementary school teacher required her students to have a moment of silent to start the day. She had really good emotional and pragmatic reasons for doing so. Yet, the Eleventh Circuit found that the moment of silence had a primary religious purpose. The effect of the Holloman decision was that emotional appeals do not allow government actors to usurp the Establishment Clause. The Windsor and Obergefell Courts allowed emotional and pragmatic appeals to override the Establishment Clause by pretending that self-identified gay people were a class of people for purposes of the Fourteenth Amendment. Yet, the truth is that self-identified gay people are a part of a denominational sect within the over all religion of Secular Humanism. While there are no such thing as ex-blacks, ex-whites, ex-asians, and ex-hispanics, there are thousands of ex-gays, whose testimony voids the Federal Courts of Subject Matter and Personal Jurisdiction under claims brought by self-identified homosexuals under the Fourteenth and Fifth Amendments. The government cannot respect or recognize the LGBTQ dogma through creating or enforcing policies because the ideology is based on a series of unproven faith-based assumptions and naked assertions that are implicitly religious in nature.

immature and unconstitutional, the legislative branch is not having it. The Obergefell and Windsor decisions were calculated shams that has caused real suffering - see the declaration of Lisa Bouch from WW Bridal and Pastor Penkoski.¹⁶ Of course the phony gay marriage charade has naturally lead to self-identified transvestites partnering with the Children's librarian to indoctrinate and seduce children at the public library into normalizing false permission giving beliefs about sex in a manner that amounts to government sanction child exploitation.

Obergefell is toast because the United States Supreme Court found that "questions which merely lurk in the record, neither brought to attention of the court nor ruled upon, are not to be considered as having been so decided as to constitute precedents." Cooper Industries, Inc. v.

Aviall Services, Inc. 543 U.S. 157 (2004). The Establishment Clause claims were "lurking" in the ¹⁶ Why Can't The States Limit Marriage To Two Consenting People?

<https://soundcloud.com/user-450634204/why-cant-the-state-limit-marriage-to-two-consenting-people>

The Establishment Clause of the First Amendment of the United States Constitution prohibits all of the States from limiting marriage to two consenting adults. It is an arbitrary law state consideration that is undone by the holding in Obergefell and the Fourteenth Amendment if Obergefell was not a sham. Since the Supreme Court pretended that marriage is an "existing right," "individual right," and "fundamental right" based on a "personal choice" for self-identified homosexuals under the Fourteenth Amendment, then it follows that marriage must be an "existing right," "individual right," and "fundamental right" based on a personal choice for self-identified polygamists, zoophiles, and objectophiles as well under the Fourteenth Amendment. Zablocki v. Redhail, 434 U.S. 374, 384 (1978) (fundamental right); Cleveland Bd. of Educ. v. LaFleur, 414 U.S. 632, 639-40 (1974) (personal choice); Loving v. Virginia, 388 U.S. 1, 12 (1967) (existing right/individual right); Lawrence v. Texas, 539 U.S. 558 (2003) (intimate choice). Otherwise, gay marriage plight is just a sham that is really barred by the Establishment Clause. The bottom line is that the Secular Humanists on the court are guilty of monkeying with the Fourteenth Amendment in a manner that makes Secular Humanists judges an internalized threat to American Democracy. The attempt by the blue states to limit marriage to two people is merely another arbitrary marriage ban that violates the Fourteenth Amendment, if the Obergefell decision was valid. But it was not. The First Amendment has exclusive jurisdiction in informing the states how to respond to all marriage requests that do not involve one man and one woman and how to respond to self-asserted sex-based identity narratives that are questionably real, moral, and decent.

record but undecided in Obergefell. “[Stare Decisis] is at its weakest when [the courts] interpret the Constitution because our interpretation can be altered only by constitutional amendment or by overruling our prior decisions.” Seminole Tribe of Fla. v. Florida, 517 U.S. 44, 63, 116 S.Ct. 1114, 1127, 134 L.Ed.2d 252 (1996); St. Joseph Stock Yards Co. v. United States, 298 U.S. 38, 94, 56 S.Ct. 720, 744, 80 L.Ed. 1033 (1936) (Stone and Cardozo, JJ., concurring in result) (“The doctrine of stare decisis ... has only a limited application in the field of constitutional law”). The amicus is asking the Honorable District Court in this case to re-interpret the Constitution correctly and to provide relief that Plaintiffs is asking for - a order that requires the Defendants to require the state to completely disentangle itself with the LGBTQ community.¹⁷ Judges and politicians in the other branches are human. They make mistakes. Amicus’s brief may help the Court relegate Obergefell to the line of overruled Supreme Court cases that were decided incorrectly.¹⁸ None of us are perfect, but we can change course and do what is right. That is the point of the brief. The Amicus, like the Defendants, are flawed humans, but they left behind the lies of the LGBTQ church, converting to a new identity narrative that accords with their self-evident design.

¹⁷ By allowing the Amicus filer to submit its brief it can allow to this Honorable Court and the Defendants to do its job under the Article 6 of the United States Constitution which reads: This Constitution, and the laws of the United States which shall be made in pursuance thereof; and all treaties made, or which shall be made, under the authority of the United States, shall be the supreme law of the land; and the judges in every state shall be bound thereby, anything in the Constitution or laws of any State to the contrary notwithstanding. The Senators and Representatives before mentioned, and the members of the several state legislatures, and all executive and judicial officers, both of the United States and of the several states, shall be bound by oath or affirmation, to support this Constitution.

The Court should grant leave to file because while in the wake of Obergefell v. Hodges, 135 S. Ct. 2584 (2015), there has been no landrush on gay marriage, there has been a landrush on the LGBTQ church to infiltrate elementary schools and the children's public library with the sole intent of indoctrinating minors to a worldview on sex that is questionably legal, moral, and Felton*, 473 U.S. 402, 105 S.Ct. 3232 (1985) held that teachers paid by taxpayers could not teach in schools operated by religions. Overruled by Agostini v. Felton, 521 U.S. 203, 117 S.Ct. 1997 (1997). Thornburgh v. American College of Obstetricians and Gynecologists, 476 U.S. 747, 106 S.Ct. 2169 (1986), overruled by Planned Parenthood of Southeastern Pennsylvania v. Casey, 505 U.S. 833, 112 S.Ct. 2791 (1992). Bowers v. Hardwick, 478 U.S. 186, 106 S.Ct. 2841 (1986) held valid a Georgia statute that criminalized sodomy between two consenting adults. Overruled by Lawrence v. Texas, 539 U.S. 558, 123 S.Ct. 2472 (2003). Booth v. Maryland, 482 U.S. 496, 107 S.Ct. 2529 (1987), overruled by Payne v. Tennessee, 501 U.S. 808, 111 S.Ct. 2597 (1991). South Carolina v. Gathers, 490 U.S. 805, 109 S.Ct. 2207 (1989), overruled by Payne v. Tennessee, 501 U.S. 808, 111 S.Ct. 2597 (1991). Pennsylvania v. Union Gas Co., 491 U.S. 1, 109 S.Ct. 2273 (1989), overruled by Seminole Tribe of Florida v. Florida, 517 U.S. 44, 116 S.Ct. 1114 (1996). Grady v. Corbin, 495 U.S. 508, 110 S.Ct. 2084 (1990), overruled by U.S. v. Dixon, 509 U.S. 688, 113 S.Ct. 2849 (1993). Metro Broadcasting, Inc. v. F.C.C., 497 U.S. 547, 110 S.Ct. 2997 (1990) held that governmental favoritism for some racial groups could be justified if they were "substantially related to achievement of legitimate government interest". Overruled by Adarand Constructors, Inc. v. Peña, 515 U.S. 200, 115 S.Ct. 2097 (1995), which applied strict scrutiny standard to all racial classifications. Walton v. Arizona, 497 U.S. 639, 110 S.Ct. 3047 (1990) held that a judge alone could impose the death penalty. Overruled by Ring v. Arizona, 536 U.S. 584, 122 S.Ct. 2428 (2002), which held that a jury must recommend the death penalty.

obscene and is clearly non-secular. The Supreme Court has emphasized that there are “heightened concerns with protecting freedom of conscience from subtle coercive pressure in the elementary and secondary public schools,” Lee v. Weisman, 505 U.S. 577, 592 (1992), and the federal courts have thus “been particularly vigilant in monitoring compliance with the Establishment Clause” in the public-school context, see Edwards v. Aguillard, 482 U.S. 578-583 (1987). These “heightened concerns” should compel this Honorable Court to grant leave for Amicusto file so that children can be better safeguarded.

By granting leave, the Court will be in a better position to make the correct decision that might restore Constitutional integrity and the Court’s inherent authority. As ex-gays whose lives were harmed by LGBTQ ideology, Amicus, have a vested interest in not allowing the Government establish the religion of Secular Humanism as the National religion. As ex-gays, Amicus, have a vested interest in not allowing Moral Relativists in office to hijack and misappropriate the Fourteenth Amendment. The Amicus does not want the government telling people who have been seduced into buying into the LGBTQ ideology that they cannot leave it behind. They can. They can transformed and redeemed, and set free - just like Greg Quinlan, Stephen Black, Robin Goodspeed, and others have been. It is time that the Courts tell the truth, and the truth is that the Democrats are going to have to stop pushing identity politics because that is what the Establishment Clause demands. The government is going to have to get out of the parody marriage business, and the government is not going to be allowed to enforce sexual orientation discrimination statutes that have hurt Jack Phillips and put people like Lisa Bouch from WW Bridal out of business. It is time to get the government out of the parody marriage business totally and completely forever and always.
